

KASTAMONU

English

Kastamonu Castle

Kastamonu is a long standing city on the western Black Sea region which has been settled throughout the history and has protected its past and its natural beauties from the every shade of green to the infinity of blue.

Kastamonu is a city which has been divided by the Kure and Ilgaz Mountains' valleys and a city of the sea, mountains, forests and valleys that have been leaning to Central Anatolia with Devrez Valley surpassing Ilgaz mountains and its coolness that has been reaching to the Black Sea.

Kastamonu province has been placed on Turkey's North in the Black Sea region and on the 33-34 degrees East longitudes and 41-42 degrees North latitudes. Black Sea Region composes the province's natural north city limit and Kastamonu has been surrounded with on the east Sinop and Çorum, on the south Çankırı, on the west Karabuk and Bartın provinces. Mountains have generally hold the whip hand to the region's geologic structure.

period, Pompeipolis had been the city assembly of the union council, from after christ 150 to after christ 300 it had been the metropolis namely the capital.

It has been came across the name of Kastamonu for the first time on the written sources on the 11. century as "Castamon". Anno Domini 11-12.century, the city has been appeared out on the Byzantium sources and then belonging to Komnenos' which have been one of the dynasty of Byzantium Empire, as a fortified residential. In 1084 although the city has passed into the hands of the Turks which had been commanded on Emir Karategin, then the city had been changed hands between the Turks and Byzantines.

In 1211-1212, it had been strictly on the hands of the Turks, who is Emir Hüsameddin Çoban Bey depending on the Anatolian Seljuk state, it had been the place of establishment of Çobanoğulları lordship, in 1309 it had passed the sovereignty of Candaroğulları lordship by I. Süleyman Pasha. As for in 1461, Kastamonu had been made an important starboard by adding this city to the Ottoman Empire by Fatih Sultan Mehmet.

It has been seen that Kastamonu has got an uninterrupted chronology from Paleolitik term to extant after the results of the archeological excavations and surveys. Kastamonu and its near area have began to emerge to the day from the period called as Bronze Age before Christ 2. It has been seen that on Anatolia, Kastamonu and its area have been the societies on which the Pala and Tummana people have been living on the period of before christ. After this date, Kastamonu entered the command of in turn Frig, Lidya, Pers, Helen, Pontus and Rome chronologically.

On the Antique Age this area had been called as Paphlagonia and in the work of The Illiad on which the Troya war has been narrated, this area has been an honoured community.

Kastamonu and its near area, had completely passed under the sovereignty of Rome by the Roman General Pompeus Magnus on before christ 64. On this

Independence Medal
given to Bargees Guild.

During the National Struggle and its before foremost Çanakkale and then astamonu's supports to the national salvation by giving the most numbered martiries in the different wars are very important.

Şerife sisters, the sergant Halimes, the grandmother Necibe, who drove the oxcart columns in İnebolu-Ankara logistics line (that was an important factor in winning the IndependenceWar) and as well as those, who organized the first women meeting of Anatolia on 10th December 1919 and many more, are the monumental names of Kastamonu in the Independence War.

It was first in Turkey that The White-Ribbon Independence Medal was given to İnebolu Bargees Guild by Grand National Assembly of Turkey in 9th April 1924 because of their benefits for the Independence War.

Because of the benefits of Kastamonu people, which started during Çanakkale Wars and continued till the years of National Struggle, Mustafa Kemal Atatürk honoured Kastamonu with "Hat and Dress Revolution" on 23 August 1925.

Studies which have been conducted so far in Kastamonu have been registered as 1931 immovable cultural property. 1433 example of civil architecture, 352 pieces of culturalreligious buildings, 7 units of military, 27 units of administrative building and 5 units of natural sites. As well as these, there are 71 units of site area in the city totally. 61 of them are archeological, 5 of them are central, 5 of them are natural sites.

At the heart of the city there are 600 registered building units. About 400 of these structures consist civil architectural works which have been aged over a century. In Kastamonu which holds the majority of housing stock in a registered civil architecture of the Black Sea Region, Inebolu, Taşköprü and Tosya districts come as the most populated centers after Kastamonu.

Kastamonu Mansions

Because of the different factors in Kastamonu's geographical situation, civil architectural elements present a variety of construction techniques and design which are suitable for its geography.

Especially the most important features of the mansions, which are located in the city centre, are aesthetical mind and various architectural designs on the frontage of each construction. It means that there isn't a certain "Kastamonu Mansion" but there are 400 different architectural constructions of Kastamonu.

Another important difference of Kastamonu mansions is that the first floor of the threestoried Kastamonu mansions is not as quiet as the mansions in other cities. It is the floor where daily life starts. Second floors are the common area of the family and third floors are the special place for the guests of the house.

On structures of civil architecture, it is seen on the mansions of Kastamonu that there was a thought to use the area in the best conditions, not to hinder the sun, shadow and view of the neighbour.

İnebolu Evleri

İnebolu coastal residents take place with the originality of the variety of the geography of Kastamonu at samples at the beginning of attracting abundance and diversity of residential housing in the coastal İnebolu.

İnebolu homes which are forming the shape of the main building of the coast, have been built on the steep hillsides and 3 or 4 storey wooden buildings. The vast majority of the houses in İnebolu are painted ocher and red-burgundy pupils. These dyes have been removed from the village of Vaccine. The feature of protection is increased by adding flox oil also for the protection of the paint. In other parts of the coast, houses often left to the natural color of the wood with linseed oil which has strengthened the homes against external factors. Tile roofs of the houses in lieu of 4 side slopes and indigenous Marla (slate) is covered with stones.

Ski lift facilities

With its deep valleys (which were formed by the rivers on the mountains), canyons, waterfalls, with its 1600 m height plateaus, 170 km long coast and winter tourism on Mount Ilgaz; Kastamonu is one of the unique cities which have a variety of touristic facilities in Turkey.

Approximately 13 thousand square meters, 60 percent of the area covered with forests in Kastamonu, with a wealth of endemic flora and fauna diversity is high in the search for alternative answers or nature lovers.

Kastamonu, also houses two national parks multiple. One of them is the winter sports center of Kastamonu, Ilgaz Mountain National Park. In 1976, which was declared a national park area, is available with many tourist facilities. Other national park is Küre Mountain National Park. One of the 100 important point in the world for the protection, this park also has been a national park in 2000.

Kastamonu is a very rich cuisine in the field of Gastronomy, there are 812 kinds of food. Local food houses in which local foods have been made and served are also re-animated in many historical buildings. In addition, many products made from organic agriculture grows due to the geography of Kastamonu province also serves breakfast and dinner farms.

Kastamonu, briefly, is a unique place to experience the most natural and simple form with nature, culture, faith and beauty, to discover a sense of adventurers who want to live in a city kitty kept.

Way to Independence

Governor of Kastamonu, Turkey's longest and the third project initiated by way of the independence, created hiking track.

The only window to the outside world during the National Struggle in Anatolia remained İnebolu. In terms of support and assistance from outside the occupation of many places İnebolu Ankara has made an important line. At this point, the logistics line generated from İstanbul to Ankara İnebolu kidnapped, purchased from Russia, ammunition, logistics, materials, and many people will participate in the National Struggle, thought the man was referred to in this way to Ankara, and Anatolia. The importance of this line is very effective in winning the war, Mustafa Kemal Atatürk's "My eyes are in front, my ears are in İnebolu" mentioned in the states.

His work with the spirit of independence with the Governor of Kastamonu on this road has restored many historical structures, new functionality has given way to adorn their statues and monuments, has made reconstructions. Apart from this path is marked with the international marking system and 95 km of hiking trails have been created in the magnificent nature. Independent route communities, such as hiking, walking and camping can do each year of Independence Path walks are also held in Kastamonu Governorship.
